ASF machinists return Monday

Fifty-three machinists at American Steel Foundries in Granite City will return to work tomorrow following a two week strike.

ASF and the workers members of the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers District 9, agreed to a four-year contract last week.

The new agreement was ratified by the workers Friday afternoon.

The machinists went on strike Oct. 16 over mostly non-economic issues, union representatives said.

Solutions sought for problem students

By Scott Cousins

A public hearing Wednesday will focus on the need for an alternative education program for problem students.

The hearing will be held 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 1, in the county board room of the Madison County administration building. The hearing is sponsored by Madison County Schools Superintendent of Schools Harry Briggs Jr.

Briggs said the hearing is an attempt to gather information for the legislature to encourage the funding of alternative schools.

The recently enacted Safe Schools Law established alternative programs in each of the state's regional school districts, but did not include any funding.

Opponents appeal siting of power plant

By Scott Cousins

Opponents of the proposed $75 million wood and coal-fired power plant in Madison didn't wait until exactly the last minute to file an appeal to the plant's siting, but were within about one-half hour.

Kathy Andria of Stop Polluting Illinois, one of the principal opponents of the plant, said she filed an appeal with the Illinois Pollution Control Board by certified mail from the Post Office at Lambert-St. Louis International Airport at 11:25 p.m. Thursday, the last day to file the appeal.

As of about 2:15 p.m. Friday, a spokesman for the IPCB said they have not received the appeal.

According to a copy of the appeal, in addition to Andria and SPILL, other plaintiffs include the Madison County Conservation Alliance; the Sierra Club; Nameoki Township Clerk Helen Hawkins; and Cloverleaf residents Shirley Clegg, Linda Fulkerson, John Gall, Thelma Orr, Ron Shaw and Tom Sheddell.

In September the Madison City Council approved the siting of the plant — to be developed by Metro East LLC, a subsidiary of the Connecticut-based STRI. Last week, hearings on the plant siting were held in late July.

The plant would burn waste wood and coal to Police Chief Dave Ruebhausen says the recent case of a 15-year-old Granite City High School student who allegedly brought a loaded gun to school is "unfortunate," but that he thinks the incident was an isolated case and is not cause for too much alarm.

Your favorites will be selling Newsboy edition

Old Newsboys aren't always boys or girls — sometimes they are birds.

Fredbird is among the celebrities who will be an Old Newsboy Day apron Thursday to hawk special-edition Suburban Journal newspapers to raise money for local children. One fine feathered friend is just one of the notables who will sell papers at Old Newsboy Day's Celebrity Corner, on the plaza in front of the Long Galleria. The festivities will begin at 6 a.m. and run until 9 a.m.

The list of volunteer Old Newsboys and their man Celeb Corner is impressive. Those who will participate on Thursday, Nov. 2, include Oscar Smith, Jack Quinn, Mark Caron, Tom Wallace, Greg Mathews, Bob Forsch and Jackie Smith.

(See NEWSBOY, Page 3A)

Charles Jaco, left, host of the "Newsmakers" program on KMOX-AM (1120) radio, and Doug McElvein, host of the station's "Total Information PM" program, will join other radio station personalities and thousands of local residents in selling Thursday's Old Newsboy Day edition.

Don't forget: daylight-saving ended today

Remember that hour of sleep you lost last April? You've got it back. Daylight-saving time ended at 2 a.m. this Sunday, which means you'll need to set your clocks back an hour if you didn't last night.

Example: If you retired at midnight, you should have set your clock back to 11 p.m. If you get confused, remember the saying: Spring forward, fall back.

The matter arose when Charles Knight of St. Louis proposed building a Rain Tunnel Car Wash in the final lot of five-year-old QuikTrip development, bounded by Niedringhaus and Grand avenues. The QuikTrip block — bounded by Niedringhaus, Madison and Grand avenues and Sweet Street — is zoned C-4. But the entire west side of Grand Avenue in the same block is lined with homes.

Supporters of the amendment said that C-4 is the appropriate zoning classification for a car wash. Other

Don't lose march message behind the man

Having been born and raised in Chicago, I have followed the career of Louis Farrakhan, leader of the Nation of Islam, with great interest and confusion.

There appear to be two public personalities: the rational and often eloquent speaker who calls for blacks, especially black males, to stop violence, involvement with drugs and demeaning comments and acts toward black women. This Farrakhan promotes a return to family based values with black men assuming their responsibilities and an end to violence, or Farrakhan the racist? Apparently, only Louis Farrakhan knows.

The other Farrakhan is Farrakhan the racist. Suddenly, with no warning, his speeches will charge Jews, whites and Asians with being "bloodsuckers and slave-owners." His lieutenants talk about "the need to shed blood," the rats ing of the black race to a position of dominance in the world of hatred among all non-blacks.

Which is the true Farrakhan? The eloquent black leader calling on us to return to personal responsibility and an end to violence, or Farrakhan the racist? Apparently, only Louis Farrakhan knows.

Let's look at his record, including the recent "Million Man March" on Washington. It wasn't violent, quite the opposite. It wasn't racist. As Gregory Freeman of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch reported, it wasn't really a hate rally or civil rights march.

It was about personal self-improvement and organizing black men to improve their lives, their families, and therefore their entire country and everyone in it.

I can't abide those who criticize the march or make fun of it. I hope all who attended and all who watched it on TV make this march a seminal event in their own lives. Black men by improving their lives, will enrich my life as well as enriching the entire country. I hope the magic lasts.

Driver faces charges in passenger's death

Prosecutors said an Alton man would be charged withreckless driving after a car accident in Illinois killed one of his passenger died.

LaDonna R. Scheffer, 25, of the 200 block of Thomas Street in Roxana, was killed Oct. 17 when the car in which she was a passenger, crashed in a drainage culvert south of South Roxana.

The driver, 22-year-old Eric A. Watson, of the 200 block of Woodlawn Drive in the Wood River Township Hospital for injuries and later taken into police custody, authorities said.

Assistant State's Attorney Craig Jensen said Watson would be charged with driving

MCTD wants old railroad line

The Madison County Transit District is negotiating for railroad right of way that could provide nearly 23 miles of trails for bicycling and hiking.

Jerry Kane, the district's managing director, said the district has been negotiating with the Norfolk Southern railroad for more than a year for a four-mile rail corridor between Wanda and Edwardsville and another between Troy and the McLeary Bridge.

Kane was one of the speakers Wednesday in a four-state telephone news conference organized by the Rail-Trails Conservancy in opposition to feared congressional attacks on rail-trail legislation known as railbanking.

"Without railbanking, the rail corridors would be severed with no way of putting Humpy-Dumpty back together again," he said.

Kane called rail corridors an important public resource. The law provides that railroads may reacquire corridors if they need them in the future, he said.

"Railbanking preserves corridor for light rail or commuter rail in growing areas," Kane added.

He said bicycle trails are an important component of the St. Louis region's transportation planning.

Kane said there are other rail corridors that may be abandoned in the next few years.

The Norfolk Southern route stretching from Venice through Edwardsville to northeastern Madison County and a Chicago and Northwestern corridor between Sorento and Glen Carbon.

Trail advocates hope to have a continuous trail between St. Louis and Kansas City.

Nameoki Township

Telephone (618) 931-1230

Dear Township Resident,

On the November election ballot you will find an advisory question regarding trash collection in the unincorporated area of Nameoki Township. We would like to take this opportunity to explain this question.

The Township is asking for your permission to contract, through competitive bid, with one trash hauler for the collection of all residential household trash. The hauler would bill the homeowner for the service as is the present arrangement.

Why ask for your opinion on trash hauling at this time?

A law passed in 1988 required that recycling programs be initiated in the State of Illinois. Madison County, in its efforts to comply with the State law, adopted the "Residential Recycling Ordinance", which is designed to meet the State mandate of recycling 25% of our waste stream.

This ordinance requires that all residents of Madison County recycle. If you allow the Township to contract for trash, recycling will be a part of the contract. If the Township does not contract for trash and recycling, then you will have to either contract with a private hauler for trash pick-up & recycling or drive to a recycling drop-off center to dispose of your recyclables.

There are many advantages to this type of contract. First, it will likely result in lower costs to homeowners. When a homeowner contracts for trash collection on their own, it is usually more expensive than what is charged under a one hauler competitive bid service. Second, contracting with one hauler for the entire unincorporated area of Nameoki Township would result in less truck traffic on our Township roads. This means less wear and tear from these heavy vehicles and less tax dollars for road repairs.

If you have any questions regarding this advisory question you can call the Nameoki Township office at 931-1230 or the Madison County Solid Waste Recycling Program at 692-6200.

Who will secure your retirement? Look in a mirror

The following article touches on the highlights of a very complexed program. However, it is a good overview of those of us who are affected each month by Social Security.

Most of us are aware of Social Security, as it is often the take-home pay. The so-called wage base for Social Security (or as it is officially known, the Old Age Survivors and Disability Income — OASDI) has steadily increased since the creation of the Social Security system in 1935. At that time, the wage base was $3,000, whereas in 1995 it is $16,000.

The major purpose of Social Security is to provide income on a monthly basis to replace income which is lost due to a worker's retirement, death or disability. The majority of us contribute to the system through a tax which is withheld by our employer. Furthermore, our employer adds to this a so-called "matching" amount. For 1995, both the employer and the employee contribute 6.2 percent of the employee's covered income to the system. Therefore, $7,559 is contributed on behalf of the employee earning more than $61,200.

Brian

In 1993, congress amended the program to provide that the Medicare portion of the program has an unlimited wage base. Thus, the Medicare portion of the tax (1.45 percent), which is in addition to the OASDI amount described above, has no wage limit.

TO BE ELIGIBLE for Social Security benefits at retirement, a worker must have accumulated 40 credits. A credit (also referred to as a quarter) is a three-month period which the employee earns more than a designated amount. Once a worker has accumulated these credits, he or she will be considered "fully insured" for Social Security purposes.

The normal retirement age for Social Security is 65 years old. Reduced benefits are available at 62. The future, the age at which full benefits may be received, is increasing from age 65 in 1993 to age 67 in 2027. One's monthly benefit is dependent on one's lifetime earnings.

The maximum monthly benefit (based on Maximum Average Indexed Monthly Earnings (AIME) a worker may receive at age 65 in 1995 is $1,448 (total age 65 benefit for both husband and wife is $2,724). The maximum age 62 is $1,158 (total age 62 benefit for both husband and wife is $1,701).

The more one is currently receiving Social Security but has decided to continue working, they could incur benefit reductions if they exceed certain limits. The earnings limitation for those under age 65 for 1995 is $8,160 a year, for those reaching age 65-69 the income limit is $11,280. If you are under age 65, benefits are reduced by $1 for every $2 you earn over the earnings limitation during the year.

If you are 65-69, the reduction is $1 for every $3 you earn over the limitation. There are many types of income which may be received in applying the earnings limitation. Just a few of these include: pensions and retirement pay, interest from IRA withdrawals, dividends, capital gains and interest from investments and rental income, unless you are in the real estate business.

In addition to retirement benefits, the Social Security system also provides survivors benefits to certain members of a deceased worker's family. These benefits are paid to widows or widowers at age 60, age 50 if disabled or at any age if the widow has a child who is under age 16 or disabled and is receiving benefits. Survivor benefits are paid to surviving children under age 18.

The final benefit provided by the Social Security system is disability. Disability is very difficult to determine. A worker's disability condition must be expected to last at least a year or be expected to result in death. Further, the worker's condition must be severe so that it prevents the worker from doing any kind of substantial work.

THE SOCIAL SECURITY system has been under fire for many years as problems exist for its survival when the baby boomer generation needs their benefits. The system is not designed for every worker.

In addition to retirement benefits, the Social Security system also provides survivors benefits to certain members of a deceased worker's family. These benefits are paid to widows or widowers at age 60, age 50 if disabled or at any age if the widow has a child who is increased taxes substantially. Given the current political climate, it is not clear if the system will be allowed to break down completely, because many politicians view Social Security reform as political suicide and are extremely reluctant to act.

WITH ALL THIS uncertainty, it only emphasizes that you have to plan for financial independence at retirement falls totally on your shoulders. Take maximum advantage of what ever savings plans you have at work and seek professional advice if needed. If the day comes that you want to retire and you find that you cannot afford it, the cost likely will be in the mirror. It could be in the financial future and save, save, save.

Awards many in VFW Voice of Democracy program

"Students win more than awards and scholarships when they participate in the VFW Voice of Democracy Scholarship Program," said John Hagen, commander of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1300 in Granite City, in discussing the audio essay program conducted by the VFW and its Ladies Auxiliary.

Some of the fringe benefits are increased self-confidence and poise, experience in communicating with others and valuable training in self-expression. For the state winners, there is also the broadening experience of a five-day tour of Washington, D.C., and the opportunity to make lasting friendships with the other state winners.

In the 48 years that the VFW and its Ladies Auxiliary have been involved with the Voice of Democracy Program, more than 1,000 students have participated. Participants must be from the 10th, 11th or 12th grades and must write and then record a three-to-five-minute audio essay expressing their views on "Answering America's Call." All national winners, state and national winners, are then chosen to receive a total of more than $14,000 in scholarships with a $20,000 first-prize.

One of the greatest benefits to young people who take part in the program is that by thinking, writing and speaking up for their country, they gain a better appreciation of their obligation and freedom in America.

For information to enter the contest, see the social studies teacher at Granite City High School or call 452-0144.

Missionary to speak today

The Rev. Dale Schneman, recently approved Ambassador of God missionary to western Europe, will be the featured guest speaker at 10:30 a.m. Sunday, Oct. 29, at First Assembly of God, 24th Street and Franklin Avenue in Granite City, announced the Rev. Ben Leonard, pastor.

"Many people believe, since the reformation swept through Europe, that the continent, that all of Europe is essentially Christian," Schneman said. But he emphasizes that this is far from reality. "Revolution has been slow to come to western Europe. For centuries, the spiritual climate has been one of apathy toward the gospel."

The public is invited to attend the Schneman's special missions service on Oct. 29.

•Appeal

produce electrical energy.

Opponents had 35 days from the city's decision to file an appeal with the IPCB. Thursday was the last day to file the appeal.

IPCB spokesman Jim Cross said the agency would have to determine if the appeal had to be delivered by, or just mailed by, the Thursday deadline.

If the board accepted the appeal, it would schedule a local hearing and make a ruling. That ruling could be appealed in court.

Andrus said she had been working on the appeal most of the day Thursday.

THE TWO MAIN ISSUES in the appeal are fundamental fairness and jurisdiction.

The jurisdictional questions revolves around two complaints — that residents of the nearby Coopersburg area were improperly notified about the public hearing on the plant in late July, and that no complete application was on file with the city at the time of the hearing.

The fundamental fairness question deals with whether opponents were given a fair chance to present their case against the plant siting.

"The failure to make the complete application available to the public is fundamentally unfair to petitioners because not only could they not assess the application ... they could also not prepare credible arguments for the public hearing," the appeal said.

It also said that City Attorney Casper Nighoghossian and the city's attorney general had a pattern of unchecked intimidation in what appeared to be an attempt to stifle opposition and put opponents at a disadvantage.

Developer Michael Vrtis said the appeal was expected, and he was unconcerned.

"Both [main issues] were dealt with during the substance of the hearing, both ruled on by the hearing officer," both thoroughly and completely, he said. "The hearing was reviewed, and the approval certainly addressed those issues," he said.

If the appeal were upheld, at worst it would mean a delay of about a month.

"The worst case is we would have to go through the siting process again, which would amount to a month of public hearings, testimony and correcting any deficiency the Pollution Control Board found," he said.

He estimated that would take four months, and he would keep the permitting process going during that time.

"We would continue with all our environmental work," he said. "We would take all steps to assure that it wouldn't stop."

It also said the plant siting would be held from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Nov. 5 at Hair Express, 2910 Nameoki Road in Granite City, for the Erika James Fund.

Erika, a granddaughter of Bob and Lois James of Granite City, will undergo brain surgery.

For $5 per plate, participants will be offered shish kabobs or pork steaks with cole slaw and corn on the cob.

The cut-a-thon will feature hair cuts (for a $10 donation only) for adults and $10 for children. Manicures will be available at $10 each.

The telephone number at Hair Express, which is located next door to Eddie's Lounge, is 876-5602.

"My children are not only making it difficult for educators to teach.

"A conducive environment for learning in our public schools cannot be achieved unless the atmosphere is safe, orderly and peaceful," Briggs said.

Briggs said the district already has an alternative education program in place in Bethalto, the Educational Therapy Center. Although it geared more toward special education students, an alternative education program was established there last year, and included five students.

"It's an effort to make schools safer and find an alternative for some children who are desirous of an alternative education program," he said.

"I think if you survey most of the districts in this county, most of them have some form or fashion an alternative education program," he said.

How to start and care for

Terrariums

by the experts at

FRANK'S®

The onset of the winter months can be a depressing time for avid gardeners. Although festive times are in store as the holidays are rapidly approaching, the upcoming months don't offer much as far as gardening goes. And if you're the type who can't bear the thought of being away from it for any length of time, the perfect solution could be a garden in a glass!

More commonly known as a terrarium, this is an ideal hobby. It's educational, fascinating, fun, and will satisfy everybody's gardening urge during the cold winter months.

Here are a few terrarium tips from Frank's experts.

Once you decide you'd like to try a garden in a glass, you'll first have to decide what type you want, for example a tropical or desert scene. The latter doesn't require as much moisture and is probably slightly easier to care for. If you'd like to combine the two, we have a word of advice, and that is don't. Dry desert cacti won't survive under the moist conditions needed by other plants, and vice-versa. Of course, you could always have two separate terrariums.

Let's start with the tropical garden. You'll need the correct soil, and we recommend beginning with a half-inch layer of charcoal chips. Then add a potting soil that contains some sand, perlite or vermiculite. Tropical gardens are ideal if you normally keep your rooms around 70°F or so. African violets, begonias, English ivy, ferns and bromeliads are all great terrarium plants.

Terrariums are considered self-watering, but not quite. Growing plants give off a certain amount of water vapor through their leaves. This, together with what evaporates from the soil, condenses on the inside of the glass and ends up returning to the soil as water. But it probably won't provide enough. You just have to add to it, but only by misting. Over-watering is a common mistake made by newcomers to the terrarium world.

Be on the lookout for mold and disease, since plants enclosed in a glass are more susceptible to them. Remove any dead leaves. If you do see signs that don't look quite right, ventilate the terrarium immediately.

If the Nevada-Arizona type of scenery is more to your liking, you want to go with cacti and succulents. The bottom of the terrarium should have a 2-inch layer of sand with a minimum of potting soil.

You can go beyond the traditional desert-cacti if the room is on the cool side. All kinds of woodland plants can then be used, such as small ferns, mosses, small tree seedlings of pine, juniper, holly, etc. But if you keep the room at 70°F or more, don't add any more than the cacti and succulents.

Regardless of the type of terrarium, it should not be placed in direct sunlight for any length of time. The perfect spot for a terrarium is in indirect sunlight or under a fluorescent lamp for twelve to sixteen hours a day.

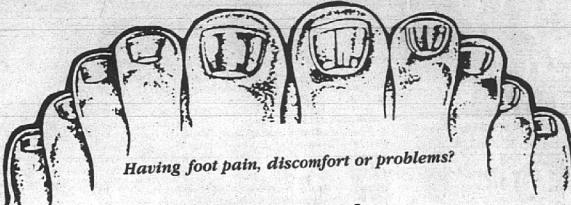

Ever wonder how all this got started? Like many things, it just happened unexpectedly, spawning from something totally unrelated, and became immensely popular. The credit goes to Dr. Nathaniel Ward, who was trying to hatch moths in a soil-filled bottle. While doing so, he discovered that plants would thrive in the bottle's moist environment. And everything took off from there.

So give it a try! It's a great way to keep on gardening all through the winter.

Odds & ends...

Recent mention of the possibility of the end of the Belleville high school football city series sent this scribe into a pile of new and old quotes worth passing along.

Bob Kaiser was one of the best all-around athletes in Belleville history. While health would not cause him to become a resident of the Birchwood Health Care Center in Belleville, he still found time to remind me of the only unbeaten football team in Cathedral's history.

"It was in 1947 and we were 8-0-1," wrote Bob. "Dupon [sic] was 18-18, but we beat Township in our last game."

THE SCORE of that game was Cathedral 14, Township 13. "We had 11 players play the whole game," said Bob, who listed the following lineup:

Jack Juen, quarterback; Hal Bonn, running back; Carl Gordon, halfbacks; Norm Knapp, fullback; Bob Nebgen, center; Jim Hause, guard; Charles Rice, guards; Dick Kohl and Norm Adrian, tackles; and Joe Geolat and Bob Kaiser, ends.

In 1948, Kaiser was a member of the Pauline Hilgards American Legion team that finished third in the national tournament. That team was coached by Al "Boots" Biedle, a prominent inductee into the Mon-Clair Baseball League Hall of Fame.

AMONG THOSE PRESENT at the M-C affair was Milton "Kody" Koudelka of Belleville, one of Biedle's former catchers.

"Kody always told me I threw the ball back to him harder than he threw it to me," said Koudelka, a retired Belleville policeman and avid outdoorsman.

Budde joins a M-C Hall of Fame list that includes Barney Ecker, Jim Kunkel, Jim St. Louis and Ed Kunkel, and is ranked against both Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris in the minor leagues.

Of a recent reunion of the 1947 M-C champion Hilgards team that Elser coached, Barney said he was very proud not just of that team's accomplishments but those of the players since then.

"THEY ARE A great group of guys," said Elser.

Another 1947 M-C Hall inductee is Pete Muskopf, formerly of Millstadt, who was involved in the County Leagues' only double no-hit league.

An "oops" in that regard came in this column which referred to Pete as a "hard-throwing righthander."

Pete is a lefty and good enough to earn a pro contract from the New York Giants.

EXTRA INNINGS: Among the area's no-hit pitchers this season, in addition to Budde, was righthander Matt Gajewski of Nashville, who is headed toward a two-sport career at Indiana State University.

As a No. 2 quarterback at Indiana State, Gajewski is the first freshman QB to appear in a varsity game since 1978.

The highlight of his career to that point start since 1984, including this season's 52-3 rout of SIU-Carbondale. ISU's defense includes safety Chris Crowley and Marci Holsinger, who has a 49-yard TD run with an interception to his credit.

OVERTIME: Among the highlights of the girls' high school tennis season were the achievements of Belleville West. In addition to moving past the 100 mark in consecutive team match victories, the Maroons earned an 11th straight sectional title.

Individually, senior Kim Mulherin moved past the school record of 133 wins set by Kim Noll in 1989.

The Lady Maroons will explain why East and West should be involved in the same volleyball regional year after year — a fact related to antiquated geographic boundaries instead of seeding, as is done in other major sports.

When East finished third in Class AA last year, the Lady Maroons completed a trek that began with their first regional title. West now owns 12 regional crowns, two state titles ('90 and '91) and a fourth-place finish ('77).

Tigers' rally topples Warriors

title run

Meet the new kids on the block.

The Edwardsville Tigers got a pair of second-half goals Thursday night to surprise Granite City 2-1 in the Edwardsville sectional semifinals at SIEU's Guelker Field.

For the first time since 1984, neither Granite City nor Collinsville will represent southern Illinois in the tournament. The Warriors, who placed second at state last year, ended the season with Thursday's loss. Collinsville was eliminated by Highland 2-1 on Wednesday in a regional championship game.

THE TIGERS (14-6) who knocked off the sectional's top-seed Warriors advanced to play Highland (16-6-1), which disposed of second-seed O'Fallon on Thursday after defeating third-seed Collinsville. The sectional final was scheduled to be held Saturday at Guelker Field.

"Considering this is the first time we've ever advanced, this is probably the biggest win in our program's history," Edwardsville coach Mark Schwarzkopf said. "We wanted to deny their attack, and be relentless in our attack. We were able to limit their opportunities, and make the best of ours."

coach Gene Baker was still happy with his team's play.

"We basically gave two goals away tonight," he said. "Other than that, we played a good game. And that's nothing against (Edwardsville). They played a great game, too, and they were very patient."

Lady Warriors upend Triad, capture regional

By Brian Bretsch

After finishing another great regular season, the Triad volleyball team watched its fall come to an abrupt ending in the postseason tournament Thursday.

The Lady Knights (24-6), ranked among the top five teams in the St. Louis area and the No. 2 seed in the Edwardsville Regional, had high hopes of at least reaching the sectional finals and hopefully beyond.

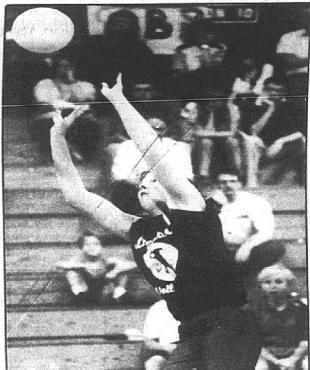

But Granite City (18-6) and the No. 2 seed Lady Warriors sent the Lady Knights home with nothing to show for an outstanding season. The Lady Warriors won the match 15-13, 2-15, 15-9 and the regional title.

GRANITE CITY WILL play the winner of the Charleston Regional on Tuesday in the semifinals of the Taylorville Sectional.

Triad coach Gary Jones was not pleased with referee's call to end the game. The referee called a Triad player for lifting the ball on match point.

"This is real disappointing. Real disappointing," Triad coach Gary Jones said. "It's a sick system. There was a ridiculous way to call the last point of the game. He doesn't call that all night long, and then he calls it on match point. Let the kids play the game."

GRANITE CITY COACH Cindy Gagich said taking the first match in a come-from-behind fashion set the tone for the Lady Warriors' (See LADY WARRIORS, Page 3B)

Upstart Bulldogs eliminate Panthers, reach tourney final

By Rob Raphael

O'Fallon soccer coach Art Voellinger sat on his team's bench Thursday several minutes after the Panthers' game against Highland in the sectional semifinals.

"I wish they'd turn that scoreboard off," he said. "They scored at Bob Guelker Field on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, still proclaiming the grim news to Voellinger.

THE PANTHERS BECAME the first team to be eliminated from the tournament as the Panthers pulled out a 1-0 victory to advance to Saturday's sectional championship game against Edwardsville, which defeated Granite City earlier Thursday 2-1.

Although O'Fallon controlled the ball for most of the game, Highland, which only won one, could break through for a goal. The Panthers outshot the Bulldogs 15-7, but Highland goalkeeper Joe Hoffman kept big wins from saving.

With the Panthers pressed, the Bulldogs simply sent long balls into the O'Fallon end hoping for a break.

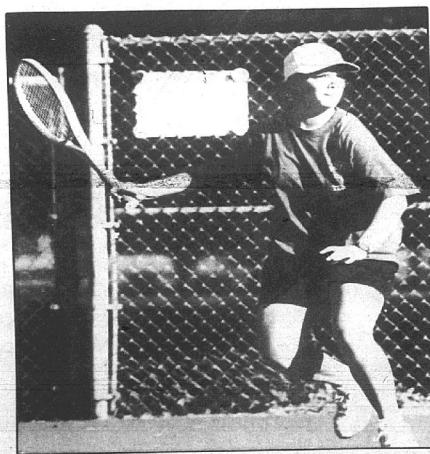

In the latter part of the first half, it happened. In the 30th minute, Brandon Potthoff sent a long cross into the box, and Ronnie Frey sent a sharp header on goal. Only a miraculous diving save by O'Fallon goalkeeper Donny Sheehan kept the ball from going in; but it was a sign of things to come.

SIX MINUTES LATER, Tim Marks accepted a pass from Tom Cooper and sent a rolling shot that beat Sheehan just inside the right post to give Highland a 1-0 lead. The Bulldogs were able to make the goal stand up.

"This was a huge win for us," said Highland coach Jim McElroy. "We lost the title earlier in the season, so we thought we could play with them. It was a great effort by our team, and we made no mistakes tonight."

The Lady Warriors will have big shoes to fill next year with the loss of top singles player Marci Holsinger.

Ames, GCHS netters hoping to rebound

By Rob Raphael
Staff writer

Granite City girls tennis coach Linda Ames will have her hands full next year.

Ames will try to keep the GCHS program moving in the right direction, despite the loss of her best player over the last two years — Marci Holsinger.

Holsinger is one of two seniors who will not be back next year, along with Heather Hoenninger. Ames will have some strong returnees, but she said, "I will be difficult without Holsinger."

"Geeta (Kumar) and Melissa (Smith) will both be back next year, and they are very good players, but there are a lot of Marci's," Ames said. "We don't have anyone to fill her shoes. That's the scariest thing about next year."

ALONG WITH KUMAR AND Smith, doubles players Kim Conaway, Julie Hildebrand, Kristin Niggl, Amanda Crabtree, and Anna Montgomery and Mario Hutchinson will all most likely return.

But that still leaves a huge void in the No. 1 singles slot. "That's my No. 1 concern at this point," Ames said. "I've known Marci ever since she was born, and we'll really miss her."

Ames is also concerned that the younger players coming into the program aren't experienced at all in the sport.

"FOR SOME OF them, it's obvious they've never played the game before," she said. "I asked some of them earlier this year if they knew who Marci was, and none of them did. Even though she played quite a while ago, I think it's a shame that these girls don't know who Marci is. Even if I think she's the best American tennis player ever."

"What we need now is another great American player. Something to get these girls interested in watching tennis."

Not only do the girls need to watch some tennis, they surely need to play some over the offseason, Ames said. She added that would be the key for GCHS to keep pace or improve.

Freshman gridders finish 5-4

The Granite City freshman football team concluded its season on a winning note last week with a 10-4 win over Belleville East.

The Warriors (5-4) finished their first year with a 1-10 record. It's the first time in three years the team has finished over the .500 mark, and a big step up from the team's 1-8 finish last year.

"WE'RE PROUD OF the kids and the way they played this year," said assistant freshman coach Tom Blaha. "They came together, and learned a lot this year. They overcame a lot of injuries, and other players who couldn't play because of grades and really jelled as a team."

In the team's finale Oct. 19, the Warriors got 122 yards on 21 carries from (See GRIDDERS, Page 3B)

each team were few and far between. Down by a goal, the frustration was apparent for the Tigers. However, they came out in the second half a different team. Cool and calm, they played their game and waited for their chances.

"Although their PK was well-executed, they didn't earn that goal in the field," Schwarzkopf said. "Because of that, we were able to come out in the first half. But we wanted to negate that frustration, and the kids pulled together and came out ready."

Play appeared very even in the second half, with neither team getting many quality chances. But when the Tigers struck, they did so quickly.

After some rough play which resulted in an Edwards yellow card, the Tigers sent the ball long just outside the Warriors' penalty area. Nick Plopols headed a bouncing ball down inside the box, where Wiesbusch keeper Jerry Smith was slow to pounce on it.

Mario Malone was anything but slow, as he left-footed the shot into the lower left corner to tie the game.

"When we came out in the second half, our main objective was to get the equalizer," Schwarzkopf said. "We weren't even thinking about the winner at that point."

However, 14 minutes after the first goal, the Tigers were thinking about the win. Greg Albrecht served a low cross from the top of the box, which appeared relatively harmless. But Mark Bugger shot through a maze of players and banged a hard head ball past Smith and into the top left corner.

"It was the only time I was left alone the whole night," Bugger said.

The Warriors never quit, and in the last minutes put tremendous pressure on the Tigers' defense. At one point, Jeff Hayes hit the crossbar squarely on a shot, and Mark Mendenhall just missed the net on another shot.

"They didn't die until that last second went off the clock," said Schwarzkopf, "and (keeper) Brian Stark saved us big time there at the end."

"I'm proud of these kids," Baker said. "We have no sour grapes about this game; we played hard and just came up short. I think a lot of people were anticipating that we would have a very off year; but the kids worked hard, and we did have a pretty good year as it turned out."

"Winning the first game of the match is so key to the momentum of the whole night," Bugger said. "That was real important for us. Jill Wozniak played good defense. Everybody just pitched in and really made some smart decisions in setting choices."

"The Metro-East Energy Facility is an answer to the area's need for waste disposal and electricity. A clean, beneficial and economical electricity producer. Designed, tested, proven and APPROVED."

METRO-EAST, LLC
MICHAEL VRTIS
PROJECT MANAGER

Landfills are filling up. They are and will remain health and safety concerns.

Rather than burying more waste and further impacting the environment, the Metro-East Energy Facility will use a demonstrated technology to reclaim the material, converting it to much needed electricity - power for an energy-hungry region. Waste from coal and wood becomes fuel, rather than space in a landfill. The Environment, the Economy and, therefore, People all benefit.

IT'S HOUSECLEANING TIME...

During the next few weeks, we plan to flush our water mains. This "housecleaning" is necessary to insure the water delivered to you is clear and sparkling. When we are working in your area, you may draw some discolored water and notice a slight change of taste and odor for a short time. Just let the water run for a while and it will clear up. The water is safe to drink.

Event includes open house for newly remodeled SSM Rehabilitation Unit

In addition to the other many special events on Celebrate Life! Day, WRTH also will offer tours of the Hospital's latest facilities, especially the Mammography Unit and our brand-new fourth floor rehabilitation unit.

WRTH has completely renovated its fourth floor to offer this area's newest rehabilitation center.

SSM Rehab— the largest provider of rehabilitation services in Missouri— operates the rehabilitation unit. They offer intensive, state-of-the-art care to help patients return to an active lifestyle.

The public is invited to tour this exciting, new facility from 1 to 3 p.m.

Early detection is the key to fighting breast cancer

The most crucial step in fighting breast cancer is early detection. The two most powerful tools women have at their disposal for early detection are regular breast self-examinations and periodic mammography testing.

Wood River Township Hospital offers state-of-the-art mammography equipment and quick results.

Dr. John Sherlock, a radiologist and the chief of the medical staff, announced that the mammography unit won full accreditation from the American College of Radiologists— the organization which monitors mammography equipment to ensure they meet the highest standards.

But, just as important as the quality of the equipment,

The mammography unit will offer a special discount price to those attending Celebrate Life! Day at Wood River Township Hospital we offer patients a warm and comfortable environment. Patients enter a home-like waiting room. From there, they are taken to a private dressing room from which they directly enter the testing room. We think you'll appreciate the difference.

Watch breast cancer prevention special tonight on KPLR-TV Channel 11

October is national breast cancer awareness month. As part of our commitment to the community, Wood River Township Hospital has sponsored a month-long public service campaign on KPLR Channel 11 to promote awareness of breast cancer, its early detection and treatment.

The program culminates tonight with an hour-long special on breast cancer on KPLR Channel 11 at 6 p.m. Dr. Rosemary Cannistraro of Wood River Township Hospital's medical staff is one of a number of health care experts who are participating in the program.

In addition, Dr. Cannistraro will offer a seminar on the early detection of breast cancer at 1 p.m. on Wednesday, November 1st in the Manley Auditorium at Wood River Township Hospital.

November is National Hospice Month

November is National Hospice Month— a time to raise awareness of this important community service.

Hospice is a vital program that helps terminally ill patients and their families. WRTH's Hospice program celebrated over 10 years of service to the community this fall.

Susan Schnirring is the director of WRTH's program. She announced recently that Dr. B. K. Dave has been named as Hospice's Medical Director. Dr. Dave is very dedicated to the program and to all his patients. He is a kind, compassionate, caring doctor.

WRTH advertising wins statewide award

A television advertising campaign by Wood River Township Hospital about the St. Louis University cardiology clinic has won a major, statewide award from the Missouri Hospital Association.

There were more than 300 entrants in the annual Show-Me Excellence awards from Missouri and the Metro St. Louis and Metro Kansas City areas.

The Missouri Association for Healthcare Public Relations and Marketing— an affiliate of the Missouri Hospital Association— sponsors the annual contest.
